

ICGG 2022

The 12th Int'l Conference on Geology and Geophysics (ICGG 2022) will be held in Xi'an, China, during May 30-June 1, 2022. The aim of ICGG is to provide a stage for researchers, engineers, academicians as well as industrial professionals from all over the world to present their research results and development activities in Geology, Petrology, Geophysics, Geothermics, Geochemistry and other related fields. ICGG 2022 will be a valuable and important platform for inspiring international and interdisciplinary exchange at the forefront of Geology and Geophysics.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Geomechanics
Hydrogeology
Mineralogy
Petrology
Precambrian Geology
Paleontology
Structural Geology
Sedimentology
Volcanology
Geophysics
Geodynamics
Geomagnetism
Seismology
Geochemistry
Coal Geology
Exploration Geology
Experimental Geology
Mathematical Geology
Remote Sensing
Oil and Gas Geology
Paleontology
Quaternary Geology
Regional Geology
Rock and Soil Mechanics
Computational Geophysics
Geoacoustics
Geothermics
Radioactive Geophysics
Biogeochemical
Earth's Internal Chemical
Isotope Geochemistry

Venue

Xi'an, is the capital of Shaanxi province, located in central-northwest China, records the great changes of the country just like a living history book. Called Chang'an (meaning the eternal city) in ancient times, it is one of the birthplaces of the ancient Chinese civilization in the Yellow River Basin area. As the eastern terminal of the Silk Road and the site of the famous Terracotta Warriors of the Qin Dynasty, the city has won a reputation all over the world. More than 3,000 years of history including over 1,100 years as the capital city of ancient dynasties, have endowed the city with an amazing historical heritage. Visitors marvel at the numerous historical sites and cultural relics in and around the city. Read more about History. Known as the leading city of China's Western Development Drive Program since 1990s, Xi'an is an important economic, cultural, industrial and educational center of the central-northwest region, providing visitors with modern and convenient facilities.
